ATTACKS ON ENEMY'S VITAL AIR TRANSPORT SERVICE CONTINUES

EIGHTY-SIX AXIS PLANES DOWNED, 68 OF THEM TROOP CARRIERS

By DANIEL DE LUCE
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, April 19.—(P)—Allied warplanes blasted down 85 Axis aircraft yesterday, including 58 Junkers-52 transports and 16 fighters caught over the Sicilian Straits in the greatest single air victory of the war in this sector, and followed up by destroying 10 more transports and a Messerschmitt fighter today.

The blinding air attacks on the enemy's vital air transport service across the Sicily Straits still were continuing.

Up to 10 a. m. the day's score stood at ten Junkers-52 transports and one Messerschmitt-109 shot down, making the two day total of 68 transports and 28 other planes destroyed. In the past two weeks 158 of the Junkers-52's have been destroyed.

The allied aerial squadrons were striking lethally in support of Gen. Sir Harold Alexander's 18th army group in raids from the Enfidaville line to Palermo.

(A dispatch from Cairo said the transports were laden with enemy personnel and heading northeastward toward Sicily when the trap was sprung. The dispatch did not bring out whether the passengers were Axis fighting men, which the Axis have said will stay and fight it out, or non-combatant and technical forces such as might be expected to be removed before the allied nose tightens further.)

Washington and Spitfire fighters engaged 100 enemy transport aircraft and their escort and in addition to the 74 destroyed, 30 others were reported damaged.

A Cairo communication said nine American planes were lost, but one of the pilots was known to be safe.

This was but one of a series of exploits in which allied airmen and ground gunners shot down 85 Axis planes during the day and night.

Sardinian, Sicilian and Tunisian targets were heavily attacked.

Flying Fortresses left large fires burning in the freight yards and an air field at the Sicilian port of Palermo and a communication said that bombs were seen to burst among enemy fighters that had just landed from an attack on the

JOHN Q. CITIZEN IS APPARENTLY NOT BUYING MANY BONDS

LOCAL VOLUNTEER WAR BONDS SALESMEN DUE TO MAKE CALLS

By JAMES D. WHITE.
WASHINGTON, April 19.—(P)—John Q. Citizen is due for some visits by his local war bonds volunteer salesmen.

Last Friday night—when the treasury's latest official figures were announced—Mr. Citizen had bought only $904,000,000 worth of war savings bonds in a drive that has its sights set on a goal of 13 billion dollars.

This didn't mean that the drive wasn't going along nicely.

The treasury announced that a total of more than 9 billion had been subscribed by Friday night.

70 per cent of the total sought had come rolling in within less than a week.

But what it apparently meant was that the cream had been skimmed off the pool of money which the treasury thinks can and should be invested in war bonds.

This cream, as Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr. pointed out, was the money from the big investor.

The big investor, generally speaking, is a big insurance company, a trust fund, a public institution, and so on.

He is not usually the man in the street, the war worker, or the individual with loose cash in his pocket or bank account.

There are still four billion dollars to go before the drive for 13 billion in April goes over the top.

It's the hardest part to get.

Much of this, says Secretary Morgenthau, must come "straight from the people."

"Up to this point," the secretary said, "I am sorry to say that our reports do not reflect purchases by the individual buyer of small denomination bonds in an amount as great as we expect and must have."

"However, I hasten to add that we all have great confidence that in the remaining two weeks the people will put their hearts into the job."

"As our selling and distribution machinery throughout the country gets into high gear, people will realize more keenly the importance of buying bonds in this drive."

NAZIS STIFFENING GROUND FORCES IN CAUCASUS REGION

LARGE AIR UNITS BEING BROUGHT TO AID HARDS-PRESSED GERMANS

By EDDIE GILMORE
MOSCOW, April 19.—(P)—The Germans are stiffening their ground forces in the Kuban region of the Caucasus with large air units in an effort to hold their positions against a Red Army drive to push them into the Black Sea, a dispatch to Pravda said today after the Russians had thrown back repeated German counterattacks.

Twenty-five enemy planes were shot down and eight more crippled yesterday alone in air battle in this sector as crack Soviet pilots thwarted enemy attempts to raid their Red Army positions, Pravda said.

Enemy ground troops, concentrating their forces, launched a combined attack on Soviet positions, supported by tank and air units, hammered without success at Soviet front lines, it was reported. Pravda said the Germans often advanced walking upright with fire from Soviet heavy mortars and rifles pouring into their ranks.

The mid-day communication said the Germans launched fresh forces in an attack last night and succeeded in breaking into the Soviet trenches but were repulsed after a fierce engagement in which they suffered heavy losses.

Rumanian troops also were employed in the Kuban fighting and numerous hand-to-hand fights developed, but they ended invariably in favor of the Red Army, Pravda said.

The mid-day communication said there were no important changes on the front.

Dispatches from the Leningrad front said Soviet bombers and Stormovik fighters attacked a large enemy fighter base on the

ASSOCIATED PRESS BELIEVES ITS STAFF WILL CONTINUE TO MERIT APPROVAL DURING WAR

NEW YORK, April 19.—(P)—Termining 1942 as a year of "extraordinary success" despite difficulties of all kinds, the board of directors of the Associated Press in a statement today re-stated "its confidence that the entire staff of the Associated Press will continue to merit the approval and heartfelt appreciation of the citizens of this our nation at war."

The board's annual report was made to members assembled for the first time since the outbreak of the war at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel.

Attention was directed to the report of General Manager Kent Cooper in which he paid "striking tribute to the magnificent work of the staff under his direction in meeting the extraordinary problems of war time reporting in all its elements and to the brilliant work of correspondents assigned to battle areas." All members were urged by the board to read it.

The board's report continued: "This success was attained in a year which saw the number of those on leave for military service grow to more than 400, or over 20 per cent of the staff and in a time which tested as never before the resourcefulness, courage, stamina and capabilities of each and every individual.

"To those in the battle areas all over the world there is owing a debt of gratitude for their perseverance and superb hardihood in conditions both difficult and dangerous.

Moved to Protect News Men.
Long before the actual declaration of war the general manager began to protect all news men, regardless of their connections, who were then kept by their work in countries likely to become our enemies.

"On this intercession the department of state obtained reciprocal agreements as to the semi-diplomatic status of all correspondents so engaged. It was a happy event when the staffs from Germany and Italy and later Japan and the Far East, after long months, were returned to this country.

"In connection with those and their families who were overwhelmed by the tide of war and remain prisoners or unreported we know we speak for all members in extending to them the sympathy of the staff."

American Fliers Continue Batter Japs in Solomons

WASHINGTON, April 19.—(P)—American fliers, battering the Japanese in the Solomons, damaged two enemy cargo vessels, probably sinking one, and started big fires at the enemy base at Kahili, the Navy said today.

At the same time, other bombers striking at Kiska nine times in one day scored hits in the camp and hangar area, destroyed one unidentified building, knocked out gun positions and strafed three beached planes at the Japanese outpost in the Aleutians.

A Navy communication said that on April 17, during the night, torpedo bombers attacked two Japanese cargo vessels in the Shortland Island area. Five hits were scored on a large ship of about 10,000 tons which was later seen in a sinking condition. Two other cargo vessels were encountered and two hits were scored on one ship and a number of near hits on the other vessels.

That same night, formations of Liberators, Flying Fortresses and Avengers attacked Kahili, in the Shortland Island area. Hits were scored on the runway and dispersal areas, resulting in fires visible for thirty miles.

Surviving during the day, Army bombers, escorted fighters, carried out nine attacks on Japanese positions at Kiska. Hits were observed in the camp and hangar area. One building was entirely destroyed, gun positions were silenced and three beached planes were strafed, the communication said.

Attacking Japs were Lancasters, Halifaxes, and Stirlings which flew at least 1,350 miles on the round trip.

The black-winged bombers were berthed in their hangars, RAF fighters carried on the aerial offensive with morning sweeps over the Dover Straits.

An Italian communication said Spezia was one of several targets of "four-engined American bombers," suggesting a twin allied assault from north and south on the naval base. There was no confirmation.

PER CAPITA SCHOOL APPORTIONMENT IS RAISED BY SENATE

AUSTIN, April 19.—(P)—The senate passed finally today 23 to 3 a bill raising the limit on the per capita school apportionment from $22.50 to $25 after Sen. Pat Bullock of Snyder had asserted that "it's almost impossible to keep teachers in Texas because of the high wages in other states."

The house last week passed a bill setting the maximum at $27.50.

Increased living costs have slashed 25 per cent from the buying power of teachers' salaries, Sen. A. M. Alden, Jr., said in speaking for the bill. Many teachers receive $800 for one year's work, he added.

Sen. Clay Cotten of Palestine asserted that "this is no time to raise the per capita outlay or salaries."

Killed was a proposed constitutional amendment by Sen. Ben Ramsey of San Augustine abolishing the office of constable. Ramsey's motion to encroach the resolution submitting the amendment mustered 54 yeas votes to 11 noes but 21 were required.

Ramsey told the senate that the people would do away with constables if they were not protected by the question, and asserted "our people will continue to pay fines for laws never violated if constables are maintained."

Passed finally were bills: Enacting rules and regulations of the state board of examiners into law, by Sen. Jesse Martin of Fort Worth.

Requiring enrichment of baking mixes and oleomargarine by Sen. Karl L. Lovelady of Meridian.

Decreases shown in registration motor vehicles.

Decreases were noted in 1942 registrations of motor vehicles in Navarro county as compared with figures for 1941, with the lone exception of farm licenses and motorcycles, according to information from the office of Halley Blake, assessor and collector of taxes for Navarro county.

There were 6170 passenger cars registered this year, compared with 6258 in 1942, a reduction of 216.

There were 553 farm license issued an increase of 18 from the 535 in 1942.

There were 965 commercial trucks registered this year, as compared with 751 last year, a decrease of 86.

A total of 96 trailers were counted this year, 13 less than the 75 last year.

There are 12 motorcycles, in increase of three from 1942.

One auto dealer's license to S. L. Dublin was issued this year as compared with 7 in 1942.

BRITISH BOMBERS IN ANOTHER ATTACK ON ITALIAN NAVAL BASE

AERIAL OFFENSIVE OF ALLIES CONTINUED DURING MONDAY ALSO

LONDON, April 19.—(P)—British home-based bombers made the long trip across the Alps again last night to blast the Italian naval base of Spezia for the second time in six nights, it was announced today.

The attack was described as heavy and concentrated and while it was in progress aircraft of the fighter command struck at enemy destroyers at Lorient, the German naval and submarine base on the French coast.

One bomber failed to return from the attack on Spezia. The Italian port was attacked at the beginning of the present long-sustained aerial offensive against continental targets last Tuesday night.

Freight trains and locomotives in Northern France also were attacked during the night and one fighter plane was reported missing.

Strong units of the Italian fleet were suspected in hiding at Spezia. Observers said the success of the attack and the weakness of Italian defenses was shown in the contrast between one bomber lost last night and 55 missing from the two weeks' attack on the Skoda works at Pilsen and at Mannheim in Germany Friday.

Attacking Japs were Lancasters, Halifaxes, and Stirlings which flew at least 1,350 miles on the round trip.

The black-winged bombers were berthed in their hangars, RAF fighters carried on the aerial offensive with morning sweeps over the Dover Straits.

An Italian communication said Spezia was one of several targets of "four-engined American bombers," suggesting a twin allied assault from north and south on the naval base. There was no confirmation.

SCHOOL FOR FOOD HANDLERS OPENED MONDAY AFTERNOON

C. E. Saegert of the state department of health opened the food handlers school here Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Carnegie Library auditorium under the auspices of the city-county health unit. This school will be conducted through April 30.

Comprehending the subjects of bacteriology, communicable diseases, medical zoology, foods, disinfection, sterilization, personal hygiene and sanitation information was given the food handlers and also how to prepare and handle food to maintain the highest standards of cleanliness and sanitation.

To Award certificates.
At present, the school, food handlers who have successfully completed the work will be awarded certificates by the state health department.

Approval will be given food establishments where the personnel has received these certificates and met other local and state requirements.

Such training, Dr. L. A. Proctor, director of the local health unit, stated:

"No one could step into a bus loaded with passengers, and be foolhardy enough to drive that bus without a proper understanding of its mechanical workings. The responsibility of a food handler is even greater, and he must be prepared to serve them with due regard to their health and safety. Just as an untrained driver represents a hazard to the passengers, so does a careless or untrained food handler represent a hazard to his patrons."

It is necessary that food handlers have a knowledge of how they can best protect their patrons," Dr. Proctor stated, and "how to prevent the loss of food by contamination. This is of special importance while our country is at war."

The classes are to be held at 2 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. daily.

In discussing the display of the placards of approval by the management, Dr. Proctor said:

"The proprietor should proudly display this placard in a prominent place. It will inform the public that his personnel have been trained by the state and local health departments in the proper method of safe food handling, and that he has been inspected and found complying with the high standards of sanitation required by state and local health agencies."

Frost Student Is Critic Hogg Debaters

AUSTIN, April 19.—(Sp.)—Jimmy Allen of Frost, has been elected president of the University of Texas Society at the University of Texas. The six new officers of this organization will have the job of "correcting" the debaters of the University during school sessions in 1943-44.

Named after Texas' famed former governor, James Stephen Hogg, this debate society is one of the oldest on the campus.

High spot of the year for the debaters—many of whom are registered in the University Law School—are the annual spring inter-society debates. This year, in addition to teams from the three men's societies, Forensics, the girls' organization, will compete.

SUPPRESSION AND CONTROL OF PRESS PRIMARY WAR CAUSE

KENT COOPER, AP MANAGER, WANTS FREEDOM OF WORLD NEWS

NEW YORK, April 19.—(P)—Describing government suppression and control of the press as a primary cause of war, General Manager Kent Cooper of the Associated Press called today upon the American press to exert militant leadership to obtain guarantees of freedom of world news in the next peace conference.

During his speech at the annual luncheon of the non-profit news gathering co-operative in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, Cooper paid tribute to the soldiers and the press and radio who have given their lives since Pearl Harbor while on war assignments. Those at the luncheon stood silent for a moment at the request of Cooper and at the same time all wires of the organization throughout the nation were stopped.

Tribute was paid at the luncheon to Frank B. Noyes, president and publisher of the Washington, D. C. Star, former president of the AP and still on its board of directors, for his almost 50 years of service to the press.

At business session preceding the luncheon, W. J. Haley, joint managing director of the Manchester Guardian and the Evening News of Manchester, England, described the successful operations of British newspapers in wartime despite serious shortages of manpower and newsprint.

"In honoring our own Associated Press dead or missing since Pearl Harbor," Cooper said, "we should

MILLIONS AMERICAN WORKERS ARE FROZEN IN ESSENTIAL JOBS

WASHINGTON, April 19.—(P)—Twenty-seven million Americans now employed in essential work are virtually frozen in their jobs as a result of a war manpower commission edict forbidding them to switch to higher-paying jobs with new employers on pain of fine or imprisonment.

The decree, issued over the weekend by Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt on orders from President Roosevelt, was promptly assumed as "executive" by Senator Austin (R-Vt.), co-author of the National Service bill.

Austin predicted it will increase public sentiment for legislation to draft men and women wherever they are needed in the war effort.

McNutt gave reporters this explanation:

"We've got a war on."

The nation's remaining 25,000,000 civilian workers—all those in non-essential activities—were left free to move at will to other non-essential employers or to essential employers offering higher wages or salaries.

There was one exception to the ban against essential workers shifting to higher paying jobs: the pay being measured on the basis of compensation in the essential employment before leaving their jobs.

The exception covered transfers from one essential employer to another where the work is performed in an area covered by an "employment stabilization program" approved by the War Relocation Authority.

These transfers may be made if the employer will release the worker or, if he refuses, the WRC releases him on the ground that his old job does not make full time use of his "highest skills."

The releases must be granted automatically when the worker is fired or "laid off for an indefinite period or for seven days or more."

The WRC was authorized to control wage increases by an employer for persons already working for him, but lacked power over wage increases obtained by workers in shifting from one employer to another.

Neither McNutt's new order nor the WRC regulation prevents employers from granting raises to workers already in their employ as a reward for merit or for promotion to a higher job classification.

Those great week-end bombing raids by the allies into the heart of Germany, and even beyond in distant Czechoslovakia, are indeed sensational news.

They mean that United Nations air-power finally is putting the finger in a big way on Hitler's carefully secluded strength. It's the productive strength upon which he has been depending smugly to keep him going, because he thought it was outside the danger zone.

Take that Royal Air Force raid against Pilsen, clear across Germany and into Bohemia; that must have caused consternation in the fuhrer's windy camp.

Pilsen is the site of the Skoda armament works—one of the greatest war plants in the whole world. But Hitler wasn't much worried over Skoda, because it lay so deep in the continent that there seemed little fear the Allies could carry out more than rare token raids against it.

Troop-Laden Transports Were Shot Down Sunday

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, April 19.—(P)—Air Chief Marshal Sir Arthur Coningham congratulated Air Vice Marshal Harry Broadhurst today for "the exhilarating success" of his western desert air force fighters yesterday against Axis aerial shipping in knocking down 74 planes off the Tunisian coast.

"I presume," he added, "that the premium (insurance rate) on air traffic over the Sicilian Straits is rising astronomically. Well done!"

On the senate side of Capitol Hill, Majority Leader Barkley indicated the only legislation definitely in sight for senate action this week was on a minor deficiency bill.

Senate advocates of proposals to put the senate on record for post-war collaboration with other nations termed the result of a poll "highly satisfactory." The poll, conducted by the Associated Press, showed 32 senators opposed, 24 favorable and 32 uncommitted on this question:

"Do you favor committing the senate and country now to a post-war course of preserving the peace through an international police force?"

Congressional agricultural and foreign relations committees prepared, meanwhile, to discuss with administration officials the government's plans to be presented at the forthcoming United Nations food conference.

A. L. GAMBLE DIED SUNDAY MORNING; IS BURIED ON MONDAY

Funeral services for A. L. Gamble, 85 years, who died at his home in the Black Hills community Sunday morning, were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Black Hills church. Rev. Lawrence Shivers and Rev. Mr. Geddy conducted the rites. Burial was in the Black Hills cemetery.

A resident of Navarro county 51 years, Mr. Gamble was well known over the county. He took a prominent part in political and civic affairs of the county for years.

Surviving are two sons, George Gamble, Jim Gamble, two daughters, Mrs. J. A. Montgomery, Mrs. S. H. Burks all of the Black Hills community; a brother, Allison Gamble, Tennessee; two sisters, Mrs. Lou Rice and Mrs. Sennie Parson, both of Alabama; 10 grandchildren, one great grandchild and other relatives.

Pallbearers were J. B. Jones, L. M. Jones, C. T. E. Tobb, E. W. Gamble and Bert Jones.

Corley's Funeral Home directed the arrangements.

Long Prairie Woman Buried Wednesday

KERENS, April 17.—Funeral services were held Wednesday for Mrs. L. M. Henderson, aged 63 years, who died Tuesday at her home in the Long Prairie community.

Surviving are five children, Mrs. Earl Mitchell, Shamrock; Earl, Clarence, Marvin and R. J. Henderson, all of Kerens; four brothers, J. N., O. J., Jap and Euby Immon; four sisters, Mrs. Stella Bruner, Mrs. Art McClung, Mrs. E. D. Ward and Mrs. Elmer Phillips. 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. C. E. Allen, who underwent an operation at the P. and S. Hospital Sunday night, is progressing satisfactorily.

THOSE GREAT ALLIED BOMBING RAIDS ARE PUTTING FINGER ON HITLER'S SECLUDED STRENGTH

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Those great week-end bombing raids by the allies into the heart of Germany, and even beyond in distant Czechoslovakia, are indeed sensational news.

WEEK-END ATTEMPTS SETTLE TAX PROGRAM FAILED OF OBJECT

SENATE LEADER BARKLEY INDICATES LITTLE ACTION FACES SENATE

WASHINGTON, April 19.—(P)—Unsuccessful in week-end attempts to work out an acceptable pay-as-you-go income tax proposal, members of a ways and means committee "compromise" group went into a huddle with house leaders today in an effort to find a middle ground.

On the senate side of Capitol Hill, Majority Leader Barkley indicated the only legislation definitely in sight for senate action this week was on a minor deficiency bill.

Senate advocates of proposals to put the senate on record for post-war collaboration with other nations termed the result of a poll "highly satisfactory." The poll, conducted by the Associated Press, showed 32 senators opposed, 24 favorable and 32 uncommitted on this question:

CAMP HOOD WILL BE EXTENDED TO TRAIN ADDITIONAL MEN

Those spring-cold Texas hills, lair of lurking tank destroyers, will burdgeon more bad news for the Axis next week.

Already the army's largest tank destroyer center in point of acreage, Camp Hood will become one of the nation's largest training camps with occupation of North Camp Hood.

Four miles south of Gatesville and occupying the northern end of Camp Hood, 170,000 warrior-breeding acres, North Camp Hood will house approximately 35,000 troops for basic training as tank destroyer forces.

As compensation will bring the replacement manpower total to more than 80,000, camp officials said today.

The new contention will ease pressure on the main camp's crowded facilities.

Col. Charles M. Thirkield, camp post commander, already has set up headquarters at the north camp as a prelude to April 26 movement of the tank destroyer replacement training center from the main camp to the new.

FALSE ARITHMETIC

It is too bad that Hitler and his little group of serious helpers had the misfortune to grow up in a country where the principles which animated the American founding fathers were unknown. Had they been soaked in youth in the ideals of Washington and Jefferson, life for the world today might have been different. This is the month when the two-hundredth anniversary of the birth of Jefferson is celebrated. It is appropriate to contemplate his work, both in deeds and in words.

For example:
"Young as we are, and with such a country before us to fill with people and with happiness, we should point in that direction the whole generative force of nature, wasting none of it in efforts of mutual destruction. It should be our endeavor to cultivate the peace and friendship of every nation, even of that which has injured us most, when we shall have carried our point against her. Our interest will be to open the doors of commerce, and to knock off all its shackles, giving perfect freedom to all persons for the want of whatever they may choose to bring into our ports, and asking the same in theirs."

Americans could wish especially that Hitler had been steeped in this:
"Never was so much false arithmetic employed on any subject, as that which has been employed to persuade nations that it is their interest to go to war. Were the money which it has cost to gain, at the close of a long war, a little town or a little territory, the right to cut wood here, to catch fish there—were that money expended in improving what we already possess, in making roads, opening rivers, building ports, improving the arts and finding improvement for their idle poor, it would render them much stronger, much wealthier and happier."

"This I hope, will be our wisdom."
When people begin to feel a little sorry for poor Germany, it's well to remember about the false arithmetic. With a small fraction of the money and energy spent, without the debts incurred and misery inflicted, Germany could, in the six years from 1933 to 1939, have made herself solid, strong, respected and happy.

JUVENILE OUTLAWS

Violence breeds violence. One sad aspect of it is the evil effect of war mentality on young boys. Many of them, unable to distinguish between righteous warfare and criminal warfare, seem to think they are justified in turning to a life of crime. In their weak and perverted minds, the Germans and Japs may seem to be great people, because they are strong enough to go out and take what they want.

So there are surprising outbreaks of criminal violence in some American cities among boys ranging in age from 10 to 16 or 17, who band together and go around at night breaking into houses and other buildings. They steal and destroy like savages, often setting fire to the home or schools they invade. They rob houses, but the mania for destruction seems stronger than the theft motive. When caught, they are

VICTORY GARDEN?

"It's called a Victory garden, and such I hope will be. Last year I met with failure instead of victory. Last year a pair of rabbits enjoyed my lettuce crop. For rabbits are too clever for fools like me to stop."

I tried a row of carrots, but little luck had I. The tops I grew were fern-like and lovely to the eye. But beneath the soil devouring were grubs I couldn't see. And they got all the carrots which should have nourished me. My radishes were sturdy. The truth is, overstrong. Too late my neighbor told me I'd let them grow too long. They bit the hand that fed them. But I am such a fool! I lacked the art of keeping a radish calm and cool.

Oh, I shall try it over! Once more I'll plant the beet. And hope the self-same blunders this year I won't repeat. But victory in the garden I fear. For worms and grubs and rabbits are all too much for me.

inclined to be bold and contemptuous. Are these perverted youngsters a natural result of the times they live in? Like Hitler, they seem to believe in "the simple plan that they should take who have the power, and they should keep who can." They have not fed on the exploits of Jesse James and his gang, who were chivalrous Robin Hoods in comparison. They are evil and destructive, fierce and impudent. And our civilized society may have quite a wrestle with them.

In such outbreaks, at any rate there is warning of dangers to American youth that must be handled wisely and quickly, before their contagion spreads.

KNOWN DIFFICULTIES
So the President has decided to "get tough" with the country. And high time, too, say the citizens. Runaway inflation was not regarded with approval by anyone, although as long as one after the other member of the team showed signs of getting out of hand, it was hard for anyone to stop.

Now wages and prices are frozen where they are. For the most part, they are fair enough. In any case, they can be endured for the present. There will be injustices, of course. That is inevitable. The flexibility of the American economic structure has always been the strongest factor working towards fairness or satisfaction among the citizens. If the American was not getting what he thought he ought to have this week, there was always the chance that next week, or next month, or next year he could accomplish his desire. And if he had to do without some cherished dream, he worked all the harder to educate his children so that they in their time could accomplish theirs.

Now that's off. "As you were!" says the President, and as we were, we remain. But all Americans know that the freezing is for the duration only, and is for the good of all. For the most part they are greatly relieved. At least, they know where they stand. And knowing where they stand, they can adjust themselves to their situations.

It was the suspense and uncertainty about everything that gave people the jumping jitters. Stability makes it seem "better to bear those ills they have, than fly to others that they know not of."

"Ill fares the land, to hastening ills a prey," when college students don't learn any American history.

Sure, Americans have a genius for government. It takes genius in make our system work.

If the Italians want to walk out on Mussolini, they haven't much time left.

It's time to revive that grand old song, "Yes, we have no calves' liver today."

Even with all the block-busters, battles are still won by flesh and blood.

Another food motto: Can what you can.

WHICH MEANS THE MOST TO YOU—MONEY OR LIVES—IS CHALLENGE WAR LOAN DRIVE

"Will our citizens be more tender with their money than with the lives of their sons, is the Second War Loan challenge," Joe E. Butler, county war loan chairman, said Saturday in urging every resident of Navarro County to participate in this gigantic war financing campaign. "Incomplete reports indicate the bond sales in Navarro County total approximately $175,000 through Friday," Butler said. The campaign started Monday and will continue the remainder of the month. Organization has been completed in Corsicana and every section of the county for the purpose of a system drive to meet the quota of $1,019,000. Mayor John C. Calhoun is the Corsicana chairman and W. E. McKinney, civilian defense head, is city co-chairman.

House-to-house Canvass.
The civilian defense organization under the direction of McKinney is making a house-to-house canvass in Corsicana but it is pointed out no one should wait to be solicited but voluntarily purchase all the bonds their finances will permit. "Today our forces are on the attack and we must support this offensive with our dollars," McKinney said. "We must become a working part of the combat teams that face Rommel's hordes in Africa—the Japanese in the South Pacific—we must arm our men throughout the world with machines of war that can't be stopped," McKinney urged.

All Must Aid

"Every citizen must join the attack by participating in the Second War Loan drive," Mayor Calhoun reminded as he urged "we must buy bonds—not just one but an extra bond and an extra bond each week until we've bought sufficient dollars worth of support for our attacking forces."

Chairman Butler said that "We must no longer think of war costs in terms of equipping a soldier, building a tank or plane or a ship. We must now think in terms of the cost of battles, invasions and new offensives. Attacking armies cost more money than equipping that army and we must meet that increased cost by buying more War Bonds and Second War Loan Securities," he emphasized.

"Remember those boys out there—in Tunisia—in the South Pacific—They give their lives. You lend your money," Butler said.

WOMEN INVITED ATTEND VICTORY CANNING SCHOOL

Instructions on how to conserve food for war canning, home-produced vegetables, fruits and meats will be available for women of Corsicana at Lone Star Gas Company's Victory Canning School Tuesday and Wednesday, April 20 and 21, in American Legion Hall at 2 p.m., according to R. S. Reading, Corsicana district manager for the gas company. The school is part of a service to aid the home front in preparing vitamin-packed foods to patriotically offset rationing restrictions, Mr. Reading said.

The canning course is open to the public, he pointed out, and no fees will be charged. Advance registration is not required. Miss Albertine Berry, home economic director for Lone Star Gas Company, will conduct the school. Those who attend will receive free copies of the company's new War-time Canning Booklet, which describes the most modern efficient and simple methods of canning using recipes that "hold onto vitamins."

By actual demonstration, Miss Berry will make jelly and can and preserve and pickle fruits, vegetables and meats. She will use recipes calling for minimum sugar and those eliminating sugar. She will demonstrate the pressure cooker, open, open kettle, and water bath method of canning. Canning retains vitamins in fresh vegetables, fruits and meats," Miss Berry said. "A housewife can make the most from such products by canning and preserving them as soon as they are ready; this will hold their full vitamin content for future appetites. Canning and preserving assure adequate food supply in the face of rationing restrictions."

CAPT. WM. A. DELAHAY LED FORMATION OF BOMBERS ON RAID

Captain William A. Delahay, 28, of Corsicana recently led formation of heavy bombers which news dispatches from India say destroyed most of a suspected Japanese base headquarters at Touloung, Burma, according to a story appearing in a Fresno, Calif., newspaper. Capt. Delahay is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben T. Delahay of this city. According to the newspaper "in the surprise raid on the objective halfway between Rangoon and Mandalay, along the Burma railway, the bombers blanketed fully two-thirds of the target area with tons of explosives. "Their craftiness in plotting a course to the Japanese headquarters, press dispatches from a bomber base in India reports, enabled Delahay and others in the formation to catch the enemy completely off guard." "Delahay and other pilots and their crews waited until the new military work had been completed, then blasted it to bits in a few seconds what took thousands of coolies many weeks to build. "Delahay, who was stationed at Hammer Field from August, 1941, to February 1942, led his first raid late in last year when his squadron blasted docks and warehouses in Rangoon. He recently sent two couriers from India to his wife, Mrs. Jane Delahay, who resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Eich at 705 Echo avenue, Fresno."

Information for Red Cross Canteen Corps Workers

In order to clarify the situation with regard to the uniforms worn by members of the Red Cross Canteen Corps, information received concerning the uniforms follows: In a letter received on January 19, 1943, from Miss Margaret Duncan, Administrative Assistant, Chapter Service, Midwestern area, Miss Duncan states: "The women of your Canteen Corps may wear a white wash uniform and cap; the white wash dress and Canteen Corps cap, or coat will give a neat uniform appearance to your group, and it will serve the same purpose as the regulation uniform."

Informant recently received by the local chairman of the Corps, Mrs. Billie Peck, Jr., from the Midwestern Area office, advises that "a mistake was made in giving you the information that the white wash dress and cap could be worn by members of your Canteen Corps."

"Because we are in total war, the necessity for identification in the event of disaster, and when serving men in the armed forces, requires members of the Canteen Corps serving regularly, and subject to emergency call, to wear the official Red Cross Uniform."

"NO UNIFORM OR CAP, UNLESS AUTHORIZED BY NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS IS RECOGNIZED AS OFFICIAL. AND NO INSIGNIA OF THE AMERICAN RED CROSS MAY BE SEWED ON OTHER THAN AUTHORIZED UNIFORMS."

The letter continues by stating, "I believe your group will understand the various reasons for this, and I hope all members of your Corps can get the authorized uniforms very soon."

For full details on placing orders, prices, etc., for the official Commando blue seersucker uniform and cap, also information about patterns, yardage, etc., and for the making of uniforms, call Mrs. Jay Silverberg at telephone No. 1123, or Mrs. M. E. Wallace, telephone No. 1301.

Chair Bottom Weaving Is Not Lost Art

The weaving of chair bottom is not a lost art, this was demonstrated by Miss Vera Sneed, county home demonstration agent, to the White's Chapel Home Demonstration Club at the community center in an all-day program, April 14.

Mrs. M. L. Spullock and Mrs. G. W. Pope were co-hostesses. Three types of chair bottoms were made, consisting of Hong Kong grass, corn shucks, and cane. One chair reclaimed by Mrs. H. M. Basham nearly 100 years old, one by Mrs. F. P. McCutcheon, 43 years old, and three others, the cost per chair ranged from 25 to 50 cents and they were as good as new.

During the brief business session with Mrs. H. M. Basham presiding, Mrs. Henry Morris, Mrs. Zeta Morris and Miss Louise Spullock, Mrs. William Lee were an afternoon visitor.

All members are asked to bring a gift worth 15 cents for grab box to raise funds for the club at the next meeting, which will be in the home of Mrs. R. P. Garrett, May 12, with Mrs. J. L. Young as co-hostess.

PLANS DISCUSSED FOR STAGING RODEO CORSICANA IN FALL

Directors of the Corsicana Livestock and Agriculture Show met Saturday morning at the Chamber of Commerce office to discuss possibilities and prospects of having a rodeo and fair in this city next fall.

Fred H. Harvey, Jr., secretary-treasurer, presided in the absence of J. N. Edens, president. W. E. McKinney, rodeo chairman, stated that he believes from all reports that a fair and rodeo would go over big in this city. People have plenty of money to spend and are needing relaxation and entertainment, he pointed out.

R. G. Dillard, manager of the Livestock and Agriculture Show, stated that it would be interesting and profitable to have 4-H club boys, home demonstration, and pig and dairy programs at the show.

W. E. McKinney, directors met appeared in favor of giving the fair and rodeo, but since some of these directors' terms have expired, it was impossible for them to obligate the stockholders by taking action on the affair.

Stockholders of the Fair Association will have a call meeting in the near future to elect officers and to get accurate and complete reports on prospects for a fair and rodeo.

PRESSURE COOKERS HAVE BEEN PLACED ON RATIONING LIST

COLLEGE STATION, April 19.—(Sp.)—Pressure cookers have been placed under rationing orders and will be distributed through local farm rationing committees which already are rationing farm machinery and supplies, according to the Texas USDA board.

County quotas will not be established according to present plans, but eligible participants must assure county farm rationing committees that cookers can be obtained before purchase certificates are issued.

Plans now are underway to release for immediate use 80 per cent of this year's production which will total 150,000 cookers throughout the nation. The remaining 20 per cent will be held in reserve to be released later or through appeals to meet special needs of certain areas, if they develop, the board explained.

Under the program, each state will receive a proportionate share of the nation's total production. Allocation to Texas has not been announced.

Purpose of the rationing order, which applies to farm and urban residents, is to distribute a limited supply of steam pressure cookers among all producers to attain the greatest possible pack of home-canned food this year. Increases in Victory gardens and farm gardens throughout the nation have resulted in heavy demand, the board said.

Criteria for determining eligible applicants include (1) individual families, (2) neighborhood pools, consisting of an applicant who has obtained the agreement of several neighbors to share the use of a pressure cooker, and (3) organizations, such as garden clubs, and women's church organizations, members of which have agreed to share the use of a pressure cooker.

Almost all of the new pressure cookers will be war models with enameled steel bottoms and tin-plated steel tops. Nearly all made will be the seven-quart size, holding seven glass jars or 14 one-2 tin cans. Approximately 15 per cent of this year's production will be 14 quart size, the board estimated.

THE WAR TODAY

But the British and Russian raids were only part of the story. The attack by American Flying Fortresses on the Focke-Wulf airplane works at Bremen, resulting in more than half the factories being destroyed or heavily damaged, was a further heartening demonstration that air victory is on the wing.

This expedition represented the deepest penetrator of our bombers had made into German territory, and it was an astonishing feat. It was done in broad daylight and the huge bombers were unescorted by defending fighters.

The distance was too great for fighter support. This meant that the Fortresses had to fly across both the strong anti-aircraft defenses on the continent. It meant that they had to battle their way through clouds of German fighter planes, as is shown by the remarkable Flying Fortresses crews shot down some fifty Nazi machines.

That indicates fierce combat, to put it mildly, and it's a further convincing exhibition not only of the fire-power and armor which these air Leviathans have but of the capability of their crews. We lost sixteen planes out of what is described as a large force.

All in all, the week-end's fresh display of Allied air power must be the cause of extreme anxiety to the Nazi high command. The increasing roar of United Nations bombers over territory which Hitler has regarded as secure, is the trumpet that will crumble the walls of Jericho and let the attacking armies in.
